Dear Mrs. Rathborne:

In answer to your letter of September 13th, I am sorry that I shall not be able to see [redacted] when she is in Washington. I have resigned as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence and, although I have remained on a part-time basis as a Consultant, I will be in New York during the early part of October when Miss Bernard intends to be in Washington. However, I have given your letter to [redacted] and also a letter which I received subsequently from [redacted] who will write to [redacted] and arrange an appointment to see her in Washington.
